The Chicago Tribune and General Fremont.

The Chicago Tribune of yesterday contains an editorial article, five columns in length, purporting to discuss the case of Gen. Fremont, the condition of the department of the west, and to give facts proved before the congressional investigating committee. If its statements and reasonings are true Fremont is one of the worst men that lives—if they are false the editors of the Tribune, and those who are back of them, in what we believe to be a huge conspiracy, are devils incarnate.

We desire to caution the people to beware of becoming prejudiced by this remarkable article. Remember that this is only one side of the case, and that the accused has not met his accusers face to face. The time will come for that. The people are the jury before whom this great trial is to take place. They will have to decide upon the guilt or innocence, not of Gen. Fremont only, but of that of the implacable enemies, who have so long followed him, and as one of the illustrious Blair family is reported to have said, those who expected "to put their heels upon Fremont's neck." All are more or less prone to believe in slander—let us resist this propensity of the human mind in this case, and resolutely resolve that equal and exact justice shall have free course.

The accusers of Gen. Fremont, and all the witnesses against him are also on trial with him. Have they performed their whole duty to the country, in their several positions? Are their hands free from fraud and peculation? Have they assumed responsibilities which they are incapable of performing? Are their minds void of malice and uncharitableness in their persecution of Gen. Fremont? It may be said that if they are proved guilty, it will not relieve Gen. Fremont of the charges against him; but now that investigation has been assumed, it opens the whole ball, and all the performers must go through the dance together, whether they be presidents, members of cabinets, generals, contractors, or editors of newspapers.

On account of the war, and the existence of public danger, the larger portion of the press has been cautious of commenting upon the conduct of our leaders in the cabinet and in the field, but when the secretary of war, through his adjutant, makes public charges in the newspapers against a general in command, in which the most secret condition of the armies in two departments are exposed to the gaze of the enemy, there can no longer be any excuse for silence on the part of the press generally. We say then—the ball is opened, let the dance go on; mean while we propose to comment freely upon the performance.

Recurring to the article in the Tribune, we think it bears the impress of unfairness, if not malice, towards Gen. Fremont in almost every line. We have not space to examine its statements at length at this time, but propose to speak of it again. What the motives are which govern its conduct in their hostility towards Gen. Fremont, we do not know, but it is well known that they have the Chicago post office in the family, that the Postmaster General is a Blair, that Frank Blair has quarrelled with Fremont, and upon the heels of that quarrel the Tribune became Fremont's enemy for the first time. Put that together and judge.

FROM THE COUNTY.—We give such additional returns from the county as we have received. From every town the same story is repeated—a light vote. We do not see how Harvey's majority can exceed 2,000. Centre—Harvey 73, Ferguson 47. Magnolia—Harvey 88, Ferguson 22. Spring Valley—About 70 for Harvey; all the vote cast. Turtle—Harvey 110, Ferguson 44. Salomon 112, Billings 39, Allen 5. Bannister 113, Hackett 13. Lima—Harvey 85, Ferguson 21.

TENTH AND ELEVENTH REGIMENTS.—The Chicago Journal says that the arrangements for the arrival of these two Wisconsin regiments in that city, are to have them arrive at the same time—one by the Lake Shore and the other by the Northwestern road, and parade as a brigade. The officers of the two regiments are to be entertained at the Tremont House. The tenth will proceed directly to Kentucky, via the Michigan Central and New Albany & Salem roads. The eleventh goes to St. Louis via the St. Louis & Alton road. It is understood that the governor of Wisconsin and his staff and a large number of citizens of Wisconsin will accompany the regiment to that city.

CAMP WASHBURN.—The new camp, on the cold spring grounds, Milwaukee, where the cavalry regiment of Col. Washburn is to be quartered, has been named "Camp Washburn." The barracks are already in process of erection, and troops will begin to take possession at once.

DELEGATE.—The vote in Decatur, Green county, was 174 for Harvey and 77 for Ferguson.

Letter from Missouri.

FINNEY'S GROVE, Ray Co., Mo.,
October 24th, 1861.

DEAR FRIENDS:—It is with pleasure I acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 12th inst. We were glad to hear of the well being of our friends, also of the patriotic endeavors old Rock is making in this, our time of need. We trust she will not yet cease her efforts, but continue to send forth her noble sons until the last traitor is banished from our midst. I assure you we, who are surrounded by these same traitors, fully appreciate the efforts of the loyal north in our behalf.

Your inquiries in regard to Gen. Fremont, I will answer as correctly as possible. He is held in the highest estimation by the Union men of Missouri, as far as we are able to learn. It is almost universally conceded here, that could he have had the men and arms, and that support from the government which he so well deserves, he would have swept the last vestige of rebellion from the state long ere this. I have heard a great many Union men say, who were politically his bitterest enemies, that no other man could have done as well surrounded by the same embarrassments. His troops have the highest confidence in him, and this is one assurance of success. The president's modification of his proclamation was generally regretted in this section. The Unionists do not think Gen. Fremont in fault for Col. Mulligan's defeat. It has been satisfactorily shown that he only had 7,500 troops in St. Louis at that time, and then the order from Washington came for five regiments; however, he only sent two, and in this it is understood he was sustained by Gen. Scott. At this time it was supposed he had a hundred thousand troops at his command, but it was not the truth. It is well the exact numbers were not known, for it might have proved disastrous to St. Louis. Before censuring Gen. Fremont so strongly, we should take into consideration the nature of the enemy he has had to deal with.

While he has had extended lines to guard and numerous small points to protect, the enemy have had no lines to guard and no forts to garrison, and could easily concentrate their forces at any point. While his forces, until recently, have been limited, he could do but little toward assuming the offensive. If he had withdrawn his forces from some points of minor importance, the Unionists in those sections would have suffered greater calamities than have now befallen them. I sometimes think the Unionists of Missouri support Gen. Fremont more freely than do the people of some of the loyal states. If he should be defeated—which we do not think he will—we shall still say, he was richly deserving of success.

For our own safety, we rejoiced when Price left Lexington. We expected the chivalry would give us a call, but fortunately they did not. Several thousand started for the Hannibal and St. Jo road, but were recalled. A great many who went from this section are returning. Whether they are deserters or have obtained furloughs till next spring, we do not know; but the latter is the general opinion. They are gathering up in squads and doing all the mischief possible. It is reported there are a thousand in camp ten miles from here, towards the river. Not long since one of these squads paid a night visit to a Union man and ordered him to leave the country. He replied he would not. They took him out and suspended him from a tree; they took him down shortly, and then asked him if he would leave. He said no, and they hung him up again and let him hang until life was nearly extinct, and then told him if he did not leave by a specified time, they would finish him. He says he will not go, and we know not how it will be. He is wealthy and is charged with no crime—save that of being a Union man.

The Home Guards seem to be particularly obnoxious to the rebels, and they take every opportunity of showing their dislike. Several of our neighbors, who formerly belonged to the Home Guard, but are now in the service of the United States, not long since obtained a furlough to visit their homes, bringing their arms with them. They had scarcely reached home ere it was noised abroad, and that night their arms were taken from them.

In the vicinity of Lexington a great amount of property belonging to Unionists has been destroyed. These are known to be facts. If the people of the north could but realize one tithe of the grievances borne by the Union people of the border states, no appeal to their patriotism would be necessary. They would, with one accord, rally around the stars and stripes and rush to the rescue of their town-drodden brethren. Surely, the patriotism of the young men of the north will compare favorably with the same class at the south. Here, all who are capable of bearing arms do so willingly, and esteem it an honor to fight for what they are pleased to term principle! The sons of our own beloved Wisconsin will do much for the preservation of their country—yes, I am confident they will. It has been hung in our teeth more than once that the Yankees do their fighting with boasts and threats. May there be such an uprising among the sons of the north as will show them we are prepared to act as well as talk.

Hoping soon to hear of a speedy termination of the war, I subscribe myself,
Your friend,
R. E. F.

TAMPERING WITH A POWDER MAGAZINE.—A Fortens Monroe letter says: "On the 23d inst. a man was seen tampering with one of the numerous magazines at the fort, while the sentry was at the other end; but he vanished over the ramparts or to some other point inside of the fort before the sentry could bring his piece to bear upon the intruder. The amount of ammunition stored in the fort must be fabulous, and one spark of fire coming in contact with the saltpetre, the entire point, with all contained thereon, would be among the things that once were. Had the daring rascal been caught in his designs upon the magazine his doom would have been inevitable. The effect, however, has been salutary, inasmuch as the guard at these places has been strongly augmented."

Upham, republican, elected in Racine over Chase, Union. Two democrats reported elected in the county.

All democrats to the assembly in Milwaukee city and county, and Keogh to the senate. Majority in city and county at least 3,500.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.

A letter to the Commercial from Fort Monroe says: The resignation of Gen. Wool is anticipated there. It also says there is authority for saying there are field officers at the fort, a Major and Lieutenant Colonel of artillery, who are favorable to the rebel cause.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.

The steam ferry boat Skipping Stone, recently purchased by the government in New York, ran the blockade of the Potomac river last night and was not fired upon by the rebel batteries. The Skipping Stone is similar in construction to the rebel steamer Geo. Page, and is about the same size; drawing from 3 to 3½ feet of water only she was enabled to hug the Maryland shore in passing the batteries. The Skipping Stone passed a puny all bound up. Fugitives represent there is great suffering in the Rappahannock region of Virginia for want of good clothing, shoes, &c. There is now a rebel battery at Aquia Creek, a few hundred yards north of the old one. Two shells were fired from it yesterday apparently to try the range. There are indications at Mathias Point that the rebels are at work there, possibly in the way of entrenching.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.

The Baltimore Sun says Beauregard was at Gordonsville, Virginia, on Monday, bound to Charleston.

The News publishes a statement from Annapolis that 11,000 troops are gathered there to be sent south as soon as the transports of the expedition return.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 2.

A dispatch in a Richmond paper says that a federal frigate attempted to burn a vessel aground on Warsaw beach. The attempt failed, and the frigate retired. There were 1,711 federal prisoners at Richmond on Saturday.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.

A special Washington dispatch says the rebel prisoners escaped from the old capitol building last night. The provost guard is in hot pursuit.

The steamship Africa sailed to-day for Liverpool, with 40 passengers, among whom were Arch-Bishop Hughes and Thurlow Wood. General Scott, it is understood, goes in Saturday's steamer.

ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 6.

A gentleman from Alexandria says that Gen. Nelson has taken possession of that place, and had advanced six miles beyond, to Licking Station, and was still marching on the pickets of the enemy, who were 10 miles ahead, where there are 3,000 strong, and were expected to make a stand. Gen. Nelson expected to come up to them yesterday.

ZANESVILLE, Nov. 6.

Considerable excitement has been created here this evening by burning the effigy of President Lincoln.

CLARKSBURG, Va., Nov. 6.

A large balloon passed over this place at 5:30 this evening, going southeast. We could plainly distinguish a man waving a flag from the balloon.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6.

The election returns in this city indicate that Augustus W. Bradford, the Union candidate for governor, and the whole ticket has from 10,000 to 15,000 majority.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 6.

The state has gone democratic. The returns are not yet all in, but sufficient to make it certain that the democrats will have a majority in both branches of the legislature. The house is composed of 60 members and the senate 21. The footings at this time are, senate 11 democrats and 10 republicans. House, 81 democrats, 23 republicans and one Union.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.

Richmond papers of Monday, just received here, make no mention of the landing of the naval expedition on the southern coast. It is quite clear however, from the tone of the southern press, that the movement of the fleet has created intense alarm among the rebels. They are anxiously awaiting intelligence of the blow that is to be struck.

JEFF DAVIS has appointed Friday, Nov. 15th, as a day of fasting and prayer.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.

Yesterday afternoon two workmen were killed and one severely injured by the blowing up of a building at the Bridgesburg arsenal, containing powder.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.

The republican state ticket is elected by 12,000 majority. Both branches of the legislature are largely republican.

Parker and French have been sent to Fort Washington by orders from Washington.

The following political prisoners were discharged at Fort Warren this afternoon, after taking the oath of allegiance: Capt. H. S. Shields, formerly of U. S. A., arrested Oct. 25th; Wm. Gilchrist, arrested in Philadelphia, Sept. 25th; Wm. P. Keens of Richmond, Va., arrested at Philadelphia, Aug. 26th; Peter Rielly of Charleston, S. C., arrested Sept. 23d.

SPECIAL TO DEMOCRAT.—Gen. Fremont has been induced to delay his departure until the arrival of Gen. Hunter who is expected this evening.

Gen. Pope arrived this morning, and efforts are being made to induce him to remain with the army even in a subordinate capacity. Many of his staff officers are anxious to stay until after a battle, and Col. Lovejoy of Illinois and Starks and Hudson of Indiana will do so whether the general does or not.

The enemy are reported moving north from Cassville, and Gen. McKinty is just about to start with a considerable force of cavalry and artillery to make a reconnaissance.

LATER, Nov. 4.—The efforts to induce Gen. Fremont to remain with the army, to act in the coming battle in a subordinate capacity to Gen. Hunter, have failed. Gen. Hunter arrived during last night, and Gen. Fremont and most of his staff departed to-day.

Gen. Hunter had an interview of an hour and a half with General Fremont this morning, in which the latter gave the former all his intelligence in regard to the position of the enemy and laid before him the plan of battle decided upon by himself and the commanders of divisions.

At their council of war held last evening, the reconnaissance in force, determined on yesterday, was postponed, just on the eve of its departure, by order of Gen. Fremont.

A scout who arrived last night reports the enemy arriving slowly in this direction. McCulloch had the advance on Friday; he was ten miles this side of Cassville, so that by to-day they must be very near us. A battle is imminent any hour; the enemy greatly exceeds our force, but fears and confidence on our side are all here now, excepting General Hunter's division. The body guard and Holman's sharpshooters were the only troops that left with General Fremont.

General Asboth accompanied the general, and acting Brigadier General Carr has taken command of his division. Col. Lovejoy, Starks and Hudson, late of Fremont's staff, who remain to participate in any battle that may occur, have received appointments in Gen. Hunter's staff.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.

Members commissioned to investigate claims against the government in the western military department, have all arrived, and will probably enter upon their duties immediately.

Rumor gained much currency here to-day that the order for Gen. Fremont's removal had been suspended for the present by Gen. McClellan, with the president's sanction.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.

The appointment of Quartermaster General Meigs is strongly urged here by influential parties, as successor to Fremont, to command the western department, where it is thought probable that Gen. Halleck will be sent to Kentucky. The same persons who wish Meigs sent to Missouri, are pressing Maj. Belger, now in the depot at Baltimore, as his successor in the quartermaster's department.

Gen. Heintzelman, it is believed, will be raised to the rank of major general.

Gen. Hooker, commander of the Union troops on the lower Potomac, made a reconnaissance along the coast on Monday. The result of it will have much influence in guiding the movements of that portion of the army.

The intelligence that Gen. McClellan has assumed entire control of the Union army of the Potomac was received with great enthusiasm.

The rebels still continue active. It is believed they have thirty or forty thousand men near Shipping Point, within immediate call. The indications are that they would be satisfied with the blockade of the Potomac and a successful resistance to any advance upon their positions. They are erecting new batteries below the mouth of Aquia Creek, the batteries already erected being insufficient.

Every night some craft succeeds in running the blockade.

Information received here from persons who have lately been among the rebels at Richmond and Manassas, give assurance that of late the rebels have not been kept posted as to the purposes of the government, and are at a great loss to know what Gen. McClellan intends to do, and at what point the blow is to be struck that they are sure will fall upon them soon.

The committee appointed at the last session of congress, composed of Senators Hale, Grimes and Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, to inquire into the facts connected with the destruction of the Norfolk and Pensacola navy yards, and Harper's Ferry arsenal, assembled to-day. Only two members were present. Mr. Johnson had not reached the city. Commanders McKim, Paulding and Pendegast, and Paymaster Bradford appeared before them as witnesses, and will give their testimony tomorrow. The committee are determined to make a thorough investigation into these matters, let the consequences be what they may.

Tribune dispatch.—All northern governments have by letter or messenger responded to the recent circular of the secretary of state, promising to see to the thorough fortification of our sea and lake coasts.

Gen. Scott should be honored the same as if he had command of the army. Gen. Haverlock, a brother of the late Sir Henry Haverlock, arrived this evening to offer his services to our government. Col. Ward H. Samson has raised his brigade, one regiment composed of Virginians, one of Pennsylvanians, and a third almost entirely of Marylanders.

Times dispatch.—Gen. Halleck or Gen. D. C. Beall will be assigned to the command of the western department in place of Gen. Fremont. The court of inquiry in the case of Col. Miles has made its report; about 38 witnesses were examined; their evidence presents extraordinary conflicting testimony; 28 swear positively they saw Col. Miles drunk on the day of the battle of Bull Run; about 20 swear quite as positively they saw him within the hours alleged and he was not drunk. After weighing the testimony the court decided that no evidence can now be found sufficient to convict Col. Miles of drunkenness before a court martial, and such court cannot be convened for his trial without great inconvenience to the service, and recommend no further proceedings. The report was laid before the Maj. Gen. commanding and approved to-day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

The World says the secrecy maintained respecting the destination of the fleet, has created no little speculation, but Bull's Bay has been fixed upon universally, as the point of debarkation. On authority, we state that the real destination is Port Royal.

The Herald says that the report of Capt. Hunter, of the rebel steamer Curlew, of the engagement between himself and the federal batteries at Hatteras, reminds us of the report of Capt. Hollins, and is equally true.

He stated he sighted his rebel gun at the Hatteras Light. The Hatteras Light is not any where near Hatteras, being now flagship of the Potomac flotilla again. He says he came within easy range. A person who was present at the time, informs us that the Curlew did not venture within four miles of the batteries, and that his shot fell short about a mile and a half.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

WINNEBAGO COUNTY.

With three towns to hear from shows a majority of 600 for Harvey and republican state ticket. The three towns will not change this majority.

OUTAGAMIE COUNTY.

Gives 500 majority for Ferguson, with four or five towns to hear from, which will not change the result many votes in the county.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 4.

It would be impossible to exaggerate the gloom which pervaded our camps yesterday, and nothing but Gen. Fremont's urgent endeavors prevented it from ending in a general rout. His quarters were thronged with officers all day, expressing their indignation and the inclination to resign. The Germans were there en masse and talked loudly about resisting, forcibly, Hunter's assuming the command. As the enemy were entrenching themselves upon Wilson Creek, and nothing was heard of Hunter, and in accordance with the most earnest entreaties, Fremont finally promised just at dark that he would lead the army to attack them this morning if Hunter did not arrive.

I never saw anything at all approaching the excitement which seized the troops. It caused immense cheering around headquarters, which spread in all directions from camp to camp, and there was almost uninterrupted cheering, more and more remote as the news reached the camps further off, for an hour and a half. A dozen bands were serenading the general at once. Everybody was preparing to start at daylight, and the all-pervading disappointment was changed into universal cheering. Our army under that inspiration would have whipped a hundred thousand men; but at 10 o'clock Gen. Hunter arrived. He spent an hour and a half with Gen. Fremont, who gave him his plan of battle. Hunter assumed command, and Fremont left for St. Louis this morning.

If we have a fight before the army recovers from its last and cruel disappointment we greatly fear the result but hope for the best. Pope is here with his entire division and Hunter's division will be here to-night when the troops will all be up.

ROCK COUNTY BANK—NEW QUARTERS.

This institution is to be removed this afternoon into its new and elegant quarters, in Jackson & Smith's block, on Milwaukee street, and will be ready for business tomorrow. The principal room and place of general business is in the west end of the block, near the bridge. It is 19 by 29 feet in size, by 13 feet in height, lighted by two spacious windows on the west and towards the river, while the whole front is composed of plate glass of large size, each plate costing $25. A fine blackwalnut counter runs through lengthwise of the room, with a railing of the same material, paneled with plate glass. The whole room is neatly finished, and is pleasant, light and airy. In the rear of the business room is a massive stone money vault in which their safe will be placed. This room is five by seven feet—the bottom, top and one end is composed each of one solid stone a foot thick, while the sides are of the same material. The whole is surrounded by thick brick walls, except the front which is protected by a massive iron door upon which is a lock which cost $150. It looks like a safe place to deposit money, and we think a burglar would earn whatever he would be likely to abstract from it, by a month's uninterrupted labor.

In the rear of the general business quarters is a pleasant and commodious consulting room, and the whole is to be elegantly furnished, and will be heated by a furnace below. The entire establishment is exceedingly convenient and pleasant, and we congratulate the "old Rock County" on having as good a place of business, in every respect, as any similar institution in the state.

CURRENCY.—The publication of the new list by the Central Bank may lead some to suppose that the bills of banks not on it, which have been in good credit, are not so now. We are informed that the bills of the whole current list are received by the other banks here and elsewhere the same as usual, and that exchange can be bought as low for one kind as the other.

APPOINTMENT.—We understand that Geo. M. Randall, of this city, recently from Ohio, has received the appointment of second lieutenant in the 4th regiment of U. S. regular infantry, and has left for New York. His company is now on its way from California.

THE RIGHT KIND OF MEN.—The large amount of money sent home by the members of Capt. Britton's company speaks volumes in their praise. Probably, the amount paid out to the company, two months' pay, was less than $2,000, and of this $1,200 is sent home for the support of the families of the volunteers. Men who are thus thoughtful of their duties at home will not fail to worthily perform their duties in the field. Their example should be imitated by others.

A GOOD JOB.—Tom Lapping, whose veracity is unquestionable, declares that he took two old feather beds and two pair of pillows to M. J. Cross, who is cleaning and renovating feathers, opposite the American Hotel, and that they came back three new beds and three pair of pillows, equal in size to those furnished Mr. Cross. He thinks if Mr. C. could make an additional bedstead out of the two old ones he has on hand, the job would be complete. Be this as it may, Mr. Cross does his work well, at a low price, and housekeepers cannot invest a dollar and a half better than to submit an old bed to his renovating process.

P. S. Tom has the latest telegraphic news.

Patten's Manual for officers. For sale by O. J. HARBORN.

CITY ZORVANS.—All persons who were sworn into the service of the state in this company, are hereby ordered to present themselves to me at Camp Friday within 24 hours after the publication of this order. ED. E. WOODMAN, Captain.

While testing the new Atlantic gun in Milwaukee last Monday, an accident resulted from the bursting of the breech plate one man being slightly injured.

COL. RUSKIN'S LASCARS.—We are glad to hear from an officer in the above corps, in our city, that the Canadian government will not to prosecute the colonel for his supposed violation of the foreign enlistment act.

ESCKE'S COMET.—This interesting object, now on its way to its perihelion, which it will reach on the 6th of February, is at the present date about ninety millions of miles from the earth, and one hundred and eighty millions from the sun. It was seen on the evening of October 23d, at the observatory of Harvard College, being just discernible in a telescope of the largest class. This comet completes its circuit round the sun in the short period of forty months, or three and one-third years. It was seen in 1780, 1795, and again in 1805, but its remarkable character was not detected until 1819, when its orbit was investigated by Bessel, the present director of the royal observatory at Berlin.

HARD.—A letter from the McLean regiment says: "To-day the colonel ordered an inspection of some hard bread, or army crackers, to be made, which resulted in condemning forty-six barrels out of fifty. The crackers we eat are stamped '1810,' and the boys say they have seen several marked 'B. U.'—Eric Constitution.

GEN. HUNTER'S "RELUCTANCE."

Adjutant General Thomas, in his report against Fremont, reveals that Gen. Hunter, the second in command, reluctantly gave his opinion that Fremont is not fit to command an army. That the public may know how "reluctantly" this opinion was given, we need but mention the fact that Gen. Hunter commenced his sneers and derogatory remarks against Fremont when he was in this city, a fortnight before he had joined the command of Fremont.

The fact is, while Gen. Hunter is himself an indifferent officer, he is one of that class of "regulars" who labor under the vain-glorious idea that none but "regulars" can command armies or fight in the battle-field. Gen. Hunter is the worst enemy General Fremont has in Missouri. We say this "reluctantly," but it is true.—Chicago Journal.

RUSSELL HUMBLED AGAIN.—Russell, the American correspondent of the London Times, has been out west, and has been glorified by the sights and hearings in Wisconsin, and from the following, which we extract from his letter written at Racine, we cannot help smiling, to learn how easily he has been humbled by some way. He says: "A few miles out to the west and we reached the rolling prairie, which is, however, settled so thoroughly that but few portions are unfilled, and little is to be seen of the natural soil. Wooden houses are scattered over the great wave-like undulations, on which lie, in stack and shock, thousands of quarters of Indian corn and wheat running to waste. It is an actual fact that maize is so cheap that it is burnt in the railway carriages as fuel, and wheat will not pay the cost of its removal—and there may be starving millions in Europe!"

The idea that maize is used for fuel in locomotives is decidedly right! And wheat won't pay the cost of removal! A valuable correspondent—that Russell.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF OHIO.—The official vote of Ohio is announced, and shows the following result for governor: David Tod.....206,997 Hugh J. Jewett.....151,791

Tod's majority.....55,203

The other candidates stand about the same. "The total vote is $3,500 less than the total presidential vote of last year, and Tod, as a "Union candidate," gets 21,000 less than Lincoln; while Jewett runs 36,000 below Douglas.

On his memorable journey home from Washington, shortly before his death, Senator Douglas remarked to a distinguished Kentuckian whom he chanced to meet at Indianapolis, "I know your man Breckinridge better than you do yourselves. Mark my words, sir; within a year from this time John C. Breckinridge will be a general in the rebel army!" The result shows how thoroughly Mr. Douglas did know his former friend. The year has but half passed since the prediction was made, and to-day Mr. Breckinridge holds a commission as Brigadier General in the rebel army under Beauregard, at Bowling Green.

HOW TO STOP AN OIL WELL ON FIRE.—We published lately an account of a burning oil well in the western part of this state, in which it was said that all efforts to extinguish the fire proved ineffectual. Another extraordinary vein of oil was tapped last week at Oil Creek, Pennsylvania. The oil was forced into the air to the height of several feet, and the gas igniting from the engine house, the well was soon in a blaze. The first inquiry, of course, was, how can the conflagration be stopped? A spectator standing near procured a barrel, which he cut in two, at one half of which he filled with inflammable matter. Then, wrapping himself closely in wet blankets, he rushed up to the blazing well, and setting the half barrel over the pipe, he succeeded in driving a plug into the tube through which the oil flowed, and thereby extinguished the flames. For this timely service the owner of the well paid him four hundred barrels of oil.—Phil. Ledger.

LET US LOOK AT THE BRIGHT SIDE A MOMENT.—A correspondent of the Sunday Register says: "Why not look on the bright side of things? We have had a defeat it is true, but the enemy report their carnage greater than we do ours. But think of the good news we have had during the week past. Springfield and Lexington recaptured, Jeff. Thompson and Zollicoffer defeated, and Romney taken. We have heard, too, that the enemy were badly repulsed at Fort Pickens, and at least three prizes have been taken on the ocean. Our arms have been very successful, owing very much, no doubt, to the fact that Gen. McClellan has drawn their attention so exclusively to the Potomac."

POLAR EXPLORATION.—The official report of Dr. Hayes, commander of the polar expedition, which has just returned, reveals the fact that nothing whatever was accomplished by the expedition. The same weary round of struggle with ice, snow and cold is recorded, and there the record ends.—"The astronomer of the expedition, Sontag, broke through the ice on a very cold day, and before he could be properly attended to, froze to death.

As Burton, the comedian, was traveling on a steamboat down the Hudson, he seated himself at the table and called for some beefsteak. The waiter furnished him with a sumptuous dish, and the comedian, who was usually put off with, "Taking it upon his fork, and turning it over and examining it with one of his peculiar serious looks, the comedian coolly remarked, "Yes, that's it; bring me some."
